

AGED WOMEN IN HOMES TO GET AUTOMOBILE RIDE

Outing Is Planned for August 24 or 25 If You'll Help.

LOAN OF YOUR CAR FOR 2 HOURS ASKED

If You Haven't One Ask Your Friend Who Has to Offer Its Use.

By SELENE ARMSTRONG.

Have you an automobile? Can you spare it a few hours?

Well! You remember that when June went smiling by, and July with its scorching heat dragged past us, many a summer outing was given for the tots of the city, with much said about the fun of it all.

Well! several scores of the dearest aged women would have felt neglected and forgotten, and in a very bad temper indeed, as they sat in their rocking chairs at the various homes and read in the newspapers about the happy holidays provided for the children, if they had not had the grace and patience that are the gift of many years.

You may not believe it, but when your hair is silver like theirs, and your hands tremble a bit, and your steps that were so steady become uncertain, you, too, will be patient, even if your year goes by without so much as an hour's vacation, or a glimpse of the flowers that grow by the roadside in summer.

"Please ask in your paper why no one has given the aged woman in the homes an automobile ride," wrote a wise person to The Times recently. "It would seem that all the tots and poor children have been taken to Bayside, the river resort, and the country, but what about the old ladies?"

Request Is Heeded.

Then the good fairy who watches over the happiness of aged people waded its wand three times, and that very

A Want You Can Fill With Your Automobile

WANTED—By several score of the dearest old ladies, sixty years young or more, ONE AUTOMOBILE RIDE.

day's issue of The Washington Times fell into the hands of Secretary Jones, of the Summer Outings Committee, of the Associated Charities.

Now, Secretary Jones was the right person, for he believed that there ought to be an automobile ride for these women who have had no vacation. So he said at once:

"Our Summer Outings Committee will be glad to co-operate with The Times in giving this automobile ride. We will supply the old ladies, if The Times readers will furnish the automobiles."

That is why you are reading this story about the white-haired woman, and the fairy who waded its wand three times, and the automobiles that are needed for the brief length of two hours to make a happy holiday. The story is written for you, because you have an automobile.

Send Us Your Car.

The Washington Times asks of you the loan of this car for two hours on next Wednesday or Thursday afternoon, August 24 or 25, the automobile ride to take place on one of these two days.

In order that a sufficient number of these cars may be secured to prevent disappointing a number in the old women's homes of the city whose hearts are set upon the ride, every automobile owner in Washington who desires to contribute his car for the two hours is asked to communicate with The Times at once by letter or telephone.

The loan of an automobile and chauffeur for a brief time will be unlikely to inconvenience the owner of the car, and will be the means of giving untold happiness to some three or more women, who, despite their years, are like happy, excited children at the thought that they, too, are to have a summer outing.

They are waiting and hoping, these dear women, that an automobile ride is really coming true for them. If you who read this do not own a car, you know a man who does. Then tell him, please.

STANLEY CONFIDENT OF BEING ELECTED

Revised Ballot Expected to Change Fifth Maryland District.

While en route to southern Maryland, Charles H. Stanley, of Laurel, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Fifth district, stopped off in Washington long enough to announce that he felt no concern over the outcome of the November election. Give him the primary nomination, he said, and he will promise to take care of the situation in the general election.

"I have no fear in meeting Thomas Parra, the Republican candidate," said Mr. Stanley. "If I receive the Democratic nomination, and I believe I will, I can easily handle the campaign against my friend Parra."

Three fourths of the white men in the Fifth district are Democrats, and if it were not for the big negro vote there never would have been a Republican Congressman from southern Maryland. The district is naturally Democratic, in spite of the negro vote, and the Democratic nominee this year is going to carry it.

Mr. Stanley does not fear the plain, simple ballot which will be prepared for the next general election. This ballot, however, is the instrument that the Republicans are depending upon to send Parra to Congress.

In previous elections in southern Maryland the official ballot has been a thing of mystery. It was so large and so complex that the average negro could not more vote it right than he could recite the Declaration of Independence by heart. It was made difficult to comprehend for the one purpose of disfranchising the negro.

In the next election, however, there will be but two names on the ballot. They can be easily voted with a little coaching on the part of the negro, and the Republicans in the district declare that the matter of coaching will be attended to at the proper time.

It is expected the challenge from Mr. Stanley to J. Enos Ray, his opponent for the nomination, to a joint debate will be issued in a few days. As soon as Stanley returns from Charles and St. Mary counties he will confer in Washington with his advisers, and if they agree he will ask Ray to meet him on the stump in at least one town in each county in the district.

PLAN JOINT EXCURSION.

Southern societies throughout the city will join the Mississippi Society Monday in its annual excursion to Chesapeake Beach. It is expected that the Tennessee Society, the youngest State organization in the city, will be largely represented. Various outdoor sports and a basket picnic will be the features of the day.

GIFT TO UNIVERSITY HELPS ENDOWMENT

Indiana Woman Swells Fund for Protestant Institution in This City.

The gift of $10,000 by Mrs. Jane Gilchrist, of Richmond, Ind., to the American University, is the latest bequest to be announced by those in charge of the growth of the university.

This school, which is gradually taking shape, and the plans for which are gradually nearing completion, is intended to be the great Protestant university of the country. According to those who are interesting themselves in its growth, its doors will not be opened until there is an endowment fund amply sufficient to permit of graduation work on a large scale. Many field agents are now at work, and the endowment fund is growing daily. It is claimed that the fund is more than $1,000,000 at present, and that it will be many times that sum by the time the doors of the university are opened.

The site of the buildings will be on Massachusetts avenue extended, where there are now two fine marble buildings already under process of construction. One of these is the McKinley Memorial Hall which will be used for an administration building, and the other is the site of the buildings is considered to be a model of its kind.

HOLY NAME UNION PLANS BIG PARADE

Arrangements on a large scale are being made for the parade and demonstration of the Union of the Holy Name Societies, to be held here October 20.

The delegates last night represented the parishes of St. Dominic's, St. Joseph's, St. Peter's, St. Paul's, St. Stephen's, Holy Name, St. Vincent de Paul's, and St. Martin's, and the Holy Comforter, and the Soldiers' Home.

CAPITAL BUILDERS GOING TO NORFOLK

Sixty May Be Week-End Guests of the Norfolk Exchange.

According to Benjamin T. Pillow, secretary of the Builders' Exchange of Washington, about sixty representatives of that body will leave here tomorrow night for Norfolk, to be the guests of the Norfolk Builders' Exchange for the week-end.

At the same time the Norfolk Exchange will have as its guests the Builders' Exchanges of Baltimore and Richmond. It is expected that altogether about 350 visitors will be present at the week-end party.

The Washington contingent will leave here tomorrow night on the Norfolk and Washington boat at 6:45, and will be met in Norfolk by a delegation from the local exchange, who will conduct the party around the city in automobiles.

At 11 o'clock the visitors will be taken for a trip through the waterways surrounding Norfolk, and a ball game will be played in the afternoon between teams from the Baltimore and Norfolk Builders' Exchanges.

On Saturday night a banquet will be spread in the assembly room of the Builders' Exchange, and Sunday will be spent in sightseeing in automobiles. The party will return home in time for business Monday morning.

FITTERS PLAN OUTING.

REPLACES BISHOP AT FALLS CAMP

Rev. M. D. Mitchell Preaches In Absence of the Rev. A. W. Wilson.

The continued illness in Baltimore of Bishop A. W. Wilson, of the Methodist church, prevented him keeping his engagement, who are gathered at the camp meeting at Falls Church, Va.

In his stead came the Rev. M. D. Mitchell, of Baltimore, who presided at the 11 o'clock service and preached the sermon.

Services started this morning with class drill by the Rev. F. J. Prettyman, presiding elder of the Washington district. He was followed by the Rev. Dr. Gross Alexander, one of the clergymen who has been obtained to lecture on historic religious subjects. He took as his theme "Colossians."

The lecture of Dr. John A. Rice, of New Orleans, which was a continuation of his treatment yesterday of the subject of "Ecclesiastes," dealt with the "Search for Self." Having delivered his lecture, the "Song of Songs," yesterday, Dr. Rice today took up at the 3 o'clock services "Job: A Tragic Ideal."

At 4 p. m. Dr. Gross Alexander, in his address, treated "Ephesians."

Tonight the Rev. J. O. Knott, Ph. D., of Warren, Pa., will deliver the illustrated lecture on Palestine, "The Land of the Book."
